

Latino American Who's Who

Dear Latino Professional,

You have been considered for inclusion in The Latino American Who's Who forthcoming 2012 edition. This is our second attempt to recognize you as a leading Latino Professional. We at the registry feel the Latino culture and influence is felt more so today than ever before and your contributions to the Latino business community warrants inclusion.

The 2012 edition of The Latino American Who's Who facilitates a networking platform that is comprised of leading Latino American executives and professionals that have met a degree of recognizable success within their respective industry or profession. This is a publication that shows how successful the Latino community has become! The registry is published annually and there will be no fees or dues to be included in the edition.

To be considered for The Latino American Who's Who complete the form below and fax it back to us. Upon receipt, a representative will contact you for verification and completion. Space is limited and a prompt response is appreciated. The Who's Who registry Dedicated to the Latino Community!!

Respectfully,

Beverly Vasquez
